Madison McLean: (USSF "D" License, Grassroots License) is new to Idaho from Southern California where she coached a 06 Girls DPL team for City SC San Diego and was the Varsity Girls Head Coach at Sage Creek High School. She has earned three separate "Coach of the Year" awards, including California State Coach of the Year by NFHS. Recently, Madison was the Assistant Coach for the SoCal Dutch Lions, a WPSL team in San Diego. She is now with the Timbers Thorns North FC in Coeur d'Alene coaching a 08 Girls DPL team.

"Growing up as an ODP player in Oregon, I am familiar with the competitive environment cultivated by this program. It is one which players must strive to improve technically and tactically in order to play at the Regional and National level. My goal is to set apart ID girls soccer players in order to be noticed, as well as foster an environment of growth and competitiveness."
